Title I SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT 2022-2023

SIUE East St. Louis Charter High School and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) (participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards.

School Responsibilities

SIUE East St. Louis Charter High School will:

1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows:

- Create a caring community of learners where students have opportunities to share their interests and parts of their culture
- Ensure that all students can participate and feel successful in all classroom activities
- Encourage student efforts and provide individual feedback to support continued learning
- Use strategies that support deeper levels of understanding
- Provide opportunities to practice social skills during group and whole class instruction
- Plan and adapt curriculum and instruction to meet each student's needs
- Monitor and measure student progress and growth toward state learning standards
- Assess student knowledge and skills
- Value families as a resource that support the curriculum

2. Hold parent-teacher conferences during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement. Specifically, those conferences will be held:

September 27, 2022 | October 28, 2022 | April 6, 2023

3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress. Specifically, the school will provide reports as follows:

- Progress reports
- Report Cards
- Assessment Performance Reports (eg. NWEA, IAR, SAT)
- 24hr Skyward Family Access Center (Grades, Assignments, Schedules, and Attendance)

4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff. Specifically, staff will be available for consultation with parents as follows:

5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child’s class and to observe classroom activities, as follows:

- Monthly parent engagement activities are scheduled and will be identified on the school calendar. See the school calendar, visit the website or Skyward for scheduled activities.
• Individual classroom opportunities will be communicated by the classroom teacher.

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children’s learning in the following ways:

Describe the ways in which parents will support their children’s learning, such as:

- Monitor attendance.
• Ensure that homework is completed.
• Monitor the amount of television children watch.
• Volunteer.
• Participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my child’s education.
• Promote positive use of my child’s extracurricular time.
• Stay informed about my child’s education and communicate with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district either received by my child or by mail and responding, as appropriate.
• Serve, to the extent possible, on policy advisory groups, such as being the Title I, Part A parent representative on the school’s School Improvement Team or other school/district advisory council or policy groups.
• Support the student in adhering to Student Code of Conduct and Student Handbook

Student Responsibilities

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the state’s high standards. Specifically, we will:

- Actively participate in class discussions and other learning activities.
• Do my homework every day and ask for help when I need it.
• Read at least 30 minutes every day outside of school time.
• Give my parents or the adult who is responsible for my welfare all notices and information received by me from my school every day.
• Promote a safe learning environment.
• Arrive to class on time with necessary materials.
• Adhere to the Student Handbook and Student Code of Conduct.
